JOB: EXPOSURE LEADS TO REPENTANCE

During the week of January 12-16, 2026 I had the privilege to minister at Fairhaven Baptist College and teach through The Chiastic and Exegetic Outline of the Book of Job co-authored by me and my son, Dr. M. Ryan Strouse. The class was well attended with ten staff and seminarians. The Book of Job is eye-opening and heart convicting as the LORD had to expose the self-righteous heart of “perfect and upright” Job and bring about his repentance!

Job: Exposure Leads to Repentance

Whereas many consider the Book of Job as the account of the man Job who was the poor righteous victim in the fallen world of the adamic race where life is just not fair! And, by the way, that is me! I am the victim of something or someone, maybe my parents, siblings, mate, employer, or neighbor, and if it were not for him, her, them, they, my life would be much more enjoyable! No, you are not the victim, and as a professed Christian, you need to remember that the perfect Son of God was the only one in the lineage of Adam’s race Who was truly the Righteous Victim! After all, your heinous sin put the Perfect and Righteous Victim on the brutal Cross, you evil, vile hypocrite! It is time to have victory over victimhood!

EXPOSURE LEADS TO REPENTANCE (CONCLUSION)

Although Job never directly cursed God, he continued to claim innocence of heart and behavior in his self-righteous life. Nevertheless, he did criticize the LORD obliquely by criticizing His creation. Ultimately, the LORD exposed the criticism of Job, saying, “Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous? Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him? Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty. Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place. Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret. Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee” (Job 40:8-14). Finally, the LORD introduced Job to Behemoth and Leviathan, the latter being “the king over all the children of pride” (Job 41:34). Could proud Job criticize the king of pride? Who created Leviathan? If he could not criticize this creature of God directly, why was he criticizing the LORD indirectly? Job was exposed as a proud critic—repentance was the only remedy for the spiritual restoration of Job (Job 42:1-7)! How proud are you, servant of the LORD? Has the LORD convicted you of self-righteous pride in your Christian life and in your ministry?
